“NO!” TO PARKING CHARGE PLAN

Church Road in Ashford, where Spelthorne Conservatives are opposing parking charges.

Spelthorne's Conservatives have begun their campaign against the parking charges being proposed by Surrey County Council.

The Conservatives are tabling a formal motion to oppose Surrey's proposal at a Spelthorne Full Council meeting.

Says Spelthorne Council Leader John Packman, "We know how important our local shops are to our communities. We feel that these parking charges will have a negative impact on these vital businesses at a time when it is economically difficult for many of them."

We urge residents to voice their opposition to the car park charge plan by writing to Surrey County Council directly with their concerns.

SPELTHORNE: A VALUE-FOR-MONEY COUNCIL

These are challenging times economically. However, Spelthorne's Conservative councillors are focused on ensuring how you get the best deal possible.

Like everyone else we've had less money in—a central government grant reduction of £700,000 in 2011/12 and we face another 10% cut on top of that in the following year.

However, we are working hard to reduce overheads and increase efficiency, so that we can preserve the front-line services that matter to all of us.

We believe that in the good times you need to plan for the bad times—so we have worked over the last few years to cut backroom costs by pioneering partnerships with other organisations and councils. We now have over 18 of these either active or just about to come on line. For example by sharing costs with Runnymede and Elmbridge Councils on human resources and procurement we have saved £200,000 annually.

We now rent out part of our council offices at Knowle Green, bringing in £100,000 in revenue. And being green means saving money on energy across our offices as well as the depot and our multi-story car parks, reducing bills.

We have also saved hundreds of thousands of pounds in management costs, by carefully looking at how we can make our "back office" more efficient.

Let us know your ideas how Spelthorne can save even more taxpayers' money and email us — contact details are on the reverse side.

SUPPORTING AN ACTIVE SPELTHORNE

■ Cllr Marian Rough, along with local activist Spencer Taylor, organised the Stanwell Fun Day in Hadfield Recreation Ground last summer!

■ Since 2004, Spelthorne's Conservative-led council has refurbished and upgraded all 33 of its playgrounds. New facilities were installed in five of our parks, including outdoor gym equipment for older people. Spelthorne has also refurbished three of our existing tennis courts as part of a rolling programme.

■ Spelthorne Leisure Centre is improving the children's play centre, investing in new gym equipment, and new flooring for the weights area.

■ Dozens of programmes are going on at the Spelthorne Leisure Centre now! For kids, there is an After School Club, Dance Classes, and Gymnastics Classes. For adults, there are Yoga and Pilates classes, and members can book their own personal trainers to help them get fit for Spring!

Building Safe Communities for you!

We know that anti social behaviour is a big concern for residents in Ashford North and Stanwell South.

The good news is that across Spelthorne crime has fallen for two years in a row and there are fewer incidents of anti-social behaviour, with a decline of 602 incidents over the past three years.

We mustn't be complacent but this fall is due, in part, to the investment that Spelthorne is making. In 2010, we targeted £200,000 on crime reduction initiatives, including CCTV cameras. As a result of the cameras alone, 241 arrests were made by police.

But the reduction in crime is also due to the important role Spelthorne's 225 Neighbourhood Watches play. Says local activist Joanne Sexton, "As a mother, safety is very important to me. Our local law enforcement officers, and our Neighbourhood Watch, both get my heartfelt thanks." For more information visit:

BROOKLANDS COLLEGE SAVED!

Spelthorne's Conservatives Help Find Solutions

Local Ashford residents cannot fail to have noticed the opening up of the frontage of Brooklands College with new brick wall and railings!

A few years ago, there was gloom and uncertainty – we thought we were going to lose this beautiful building. Your Conservative council has stayed in close contact with the college authorities, working with them to explore ways and means to ensure that the college remains open. We want it to continue to operate as a further education centre for our youths and adults.

Says Cllr Sam Budd, "With the refurbishment plans coming to fruition and increasing numbers of students enrolling, we are delighted to see that this Ashford Campus will continue to play a leading part in our community."

DOING MORE FOR OUR OLDER CITIZENS

Spelthorne has more than 16,000 residents who are 65 years old, or older. "Services to support our senior residents are a vital part of our community," says Cllr Marian Rough. "So many people who work with our older people – be they staff or volunteers – really go the extra mile, and deserve our thanks."

We are proud to be one of only a few councils in the whole of the UK operating a special Spelride service for our elderly and disabled residents. Spelride operates five buses, providing over 2,000 trips per month to elderly and disabled residents. The Meals-on-Wheels programme, staffed by volunteers, serves more than 40,000 meals each year.

Careful financial management has preserved crucial front-line services, such as Spelride's transport buses.
